San Francisco, April 24.—Twenty-nine men, charged with conspiring on American soil to start a revolution against British rule in India were found guilty by a jury in federal court early today.

Only one of the thirty defendants on trial was acquitted. He was John F. Craig, ship builder of Long Beach, Calif.

Among those convicted were Franz Bopp, former German consul general at San Francisco and practically the entire consulate staff.

Two defendants, killed during the shooting affray in the courtroom noon yesterday, were not mentioned in the verdict.

The verdict, returned at 1 a. m. today marked the end of a five months trial which has cost the government approximately a half million dollars. The trial began Nov. 20.

FUTURE OF MANKIND
DEPENDS ON TERMS OF WORLD PEACE

The future of mankind, of all the world through centuries to come, will depend largely upon the terms of peace imposed by the victors in this titanic death struggle of the nations. They will determine for millions of us whether life will longer hold out the beacon light of hope or burden with despair; whether in fact it will longer be worth the living.

If the Allies win it means for all the world a sense of freedom most of it has never known. It means a spread of the principles of democracy; a sowing of the seed of liberty in far places; the administration of justice where she has long been a stranger; a promise of better things for all time.

And fortifying all this a guarantee against a repetition of this nightmare of life waste.

And what if Prussianism triumphs?

First of all a staggering indemnity for the payment of which we will be subjected to excessive taxation for the next half century; probably too the enforced furnishing to her of raw materials and foodstuffs in enormous quantities at reduced rates for a long term of years as she is now requiring of Russia; and finally the wiping out of the Monroe doctrine and ultimate German domination in South America to the destruction of our future commercial hopes in our sister Latin republic. And of course the flooding of America with German made goods under conditions of tariff concessions that would wreck our whole industrial fabric.

Besides all of which the Lord only knows what else.

So it's not difficult to realize that we must fight not only in France but at home. We do not dare dodge the draft, shirk our work, or play the slacker with our dollars.

ME MUST ALL HELP TO WIN THIS WAR.

We must buy Liberty bonds.

VILLAGERS PUT FAKE KAISER AND HIS SONS TO ROUT

With the Simple Villagers in New Jersey, April 24.—The first German invasion of American soil resulted in the total demoralization of the enemy force today.

The casualties included Kaiser Wilhelm and his five sons—the Hohenzollern princes.

The inhabitants of the peaceful countryside were startled this morning by the tread of martial feet. Peering from their windows they beheld the road filled with soldiers wearing the gray uniforms and spiked helmets of the Hun. At their head strode the chief Hun and the whole male portion of his family.

Did the villagers shout some Americanized version of Kamerad? They did not.

Lacking modern equipment, such as poison gas and tanks, they armed themselves with stones, bricks, second hand cans, and even a deceased cat or so. With these they laid down a terrible barrage, before which the invaders faltered, broke then fled.

The sturdy Americans dashed after them in mad pursuit, making captive the Kaiser and his sons, whom they proceeded to smite hip and thigh.

The battle came to an abrupt end when an irate little man, armed with a megaphone, hurled himself into the fray and wanted to know "what in hell they spoiled all that film for."

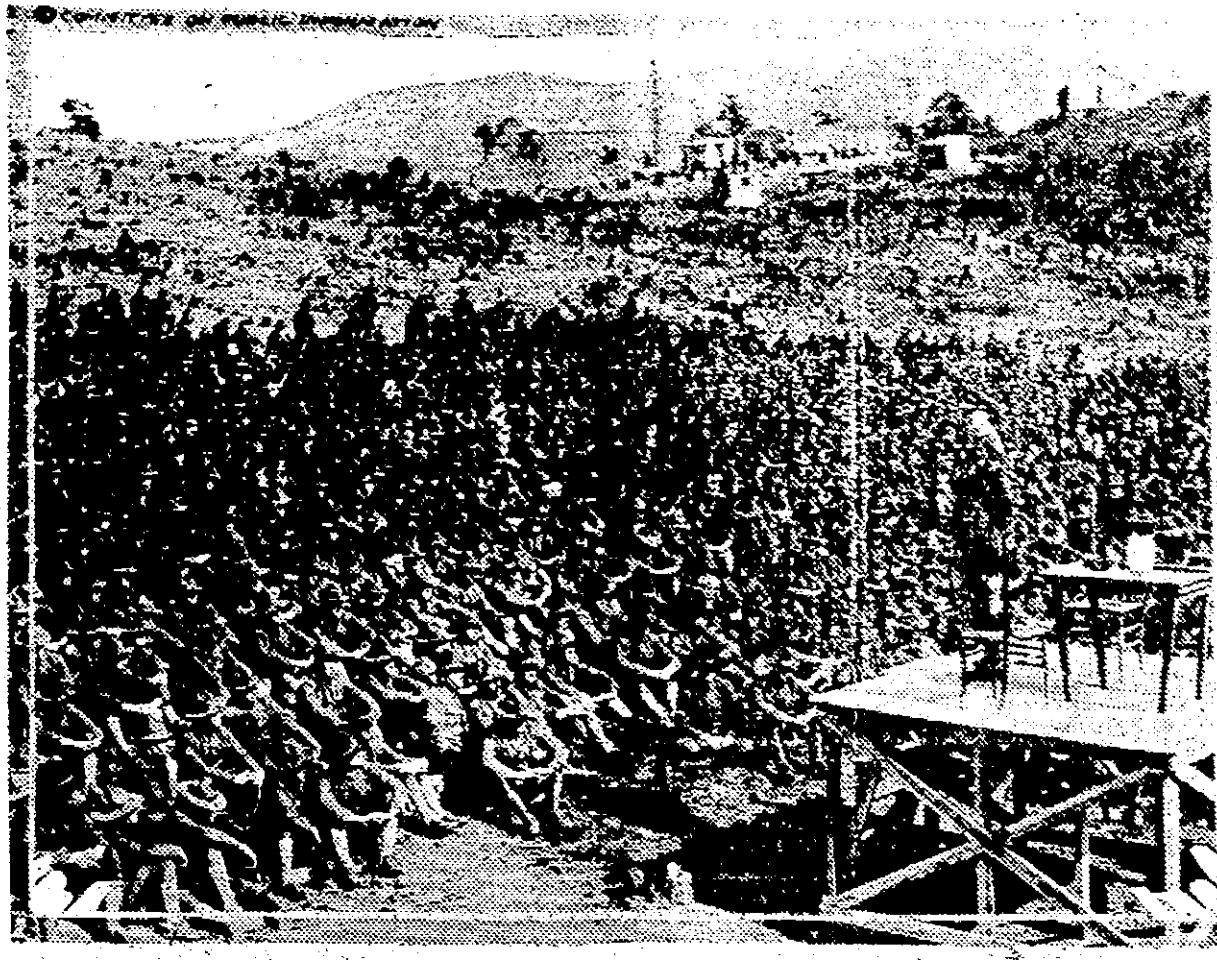

There is some suspicion that the "Simple Villagers" were not so simple, after all. But they just couldn't resist the opportunity to swat the Kaiser, even though he was only a movie edition of the real thing.

Washington, April 14.—Americans can put three million men on the fighting lines in France within a year if ships are ready, according to Adjutant General McCain, before the house military affairs committee.

Class instruction at an American cantonment.

Now that spring has come, the boys at many of the cantonments are getting their class instruction out under the blue sky. In some of the northern cantonments, however, it is still too wet and cold for the boys to sit on the ground and listen to instructors for an hour or two at a time.

BRITISH NAVAL RAID ONE OF
MOST DARING DEEDS IN HISTORY

London, April 24.—The French British naval raid on the Belgian coast yesterday morning, one of the most daring exploits in maritime history was believed by experts today to have sealed up the Zeebrugge submarine base. The blow is a hard one to Germany inasmuch as two thousand three hundred foot ships filled with hundreds of tons of cement like stone sunken in the channel, will require weeks of labor to remove.

Meanwhile many submarines and other war craft will be blocked from the open sea.

PROFESSOR AT WILBERFORCE DIES
OF PECULIAR AND UNUSUAL DISEASE

Prof. George R. Tompkins, of the Mechanical and Engineering Department of the C. N. and I. at Wilberforce University, died Tuesday afternoon after a few days' illness. Mr. Tompkins was taken ill about two weeks ago, suffering with bleeding from the gums of the mouth. He called on several physicians in Xenia who pronounced it a very peculiar case. He was given treatment which seemed to improve his condition and on last Sunday he was able to go to Jamestown with a delegation of colored people and speak in the interest of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people. On Monday morning pimpls formed in his mouth and the bleeding began anew. He immediately consulted a specialist in Dayton, who said he had only had one similar case in his practice.

On Tuesday morning he felt much better and partook of his usual breakfast. About ten o'clock he was taken with a severe pain in the head and at once lapsed into unconsciousness. Dr. Hawking was sent for, also Dr. Gallo.

The deceased was a member of Wilberforce Lodge, No. 21, F. A. M., Xenia, and was Senior Warden also Lincoln Chapter No. 22, Grand Lecturer of the Grand Chapter of the state of Ohio and its jurisdiction, held membership in the Xenia Commandery No. 8, and Washington Temple, No. 41, Shriners, Springfield, Ohio.

The funeral will be conducted by the Masons Thursday afternoon at the residence, and the remains shipped to Buffalo, N. Y. for interment.

Mr. Tompkins was born in Rochester, N. Y., October 24, 1882, and when a mere boy his parents moved to Buffalo, N. Y., where he was educated and graduated from the Mastin Park High School, June 27, 1901. In 1912 he came to Wilberforce University where he was employed up to the date of his death.

He was married to Miss Carolyn Moore, October 20, 1908, in Phelps, N. Y. To this marriage were born two children, George and Henry aged eight and six years. He leaves a father and mother, and one sister, Edith, employed in the public schools in Buffalo, N. Y.

U. S. FIGHTING MEN APPLAUD
BRITISH NAVY

Washington, April 24.—The nation today was stirred at word from England that some Americans are now brigaded with the allies on one of the bitterest sections of the western line.

The process of brigading the Americans is being hurried. Daily the war department receives reports of shifts of the United States forces and these changes are carefully tabulated. Soon most of the army will probably have lost its identity, being swallowed up in the French and British machines.

Regarding the naval operations against Ostend and Seebrugge, army and navy men joined in applauding the boldness, bravery and success of the plan. That American naval officers knew something of what was in the wind was indicated within the past a few weeks when they predicted there would be action against the bases "before July 1."

S. S. CONVENTION
HELD IN FRIENDS
CHURCH ON TUESDAY

Well attended, interesting and enthusiastic were all three sessions of the annual Greene County Sunday School Convention which was held in the Friends church in this city all day Tuesday.

Of particular interest were the addresses of L. B. Edgar, Director of Bible Class Activities at Camp Sherman, and A. T. Arnold, State Secretary of the Sunday School Association. Mr. Arnold was unable to be present at the morning session but delivered his address "Our Revised Standards" at the afternoon session of the Convention. In the evening he spoke on the "Sunday School Program" bringing out four particular points, evangelism, education, missions and social service. His addresses were very well received and were most interesting.

Mr. Edgar talked at all three sessions of the convention, speaking in an interesting manner of camp life and his Y. M. C. A. work at Camp Sherman. He explained in an interesting manner one means of arousing interest among the soldiers by means of a contest between the barracks Bible classes, each vying with the other in the matter of attendance.

During the course of the convention an attendance at State Convention which will start in Springfield May 28 was urged. Greene county is permitted 40 delegates and Sunday Schools are asked to report their delegates to Herbert Davis as soon as possible.

Besides the addresses which occupied a great part of the program, Miss Suela Beaman gave a very pleasant vocal rendition of "Face to Face" at the afternoon session, and in the evening, Wayne Bales, sang "I Think When I Read That Sweet Story."

The business session of the convention were held between the lighter portions of the program. At the annual election of officers, the same officers were reelected. They are as follows: Herbert Davis, president Xenia; J. C. Williamson, vice-president Xenia; G. W. Morrison, secretary Xenia; A. L. Fisher, treasurer Bowersville.

The Department Superintendents are as follows: Mrs. Roy Sutton, of Xenia, was re-elected head of the elementary department. F. C. Hubble took the place of Carl Smith, of Spring Valley as head of the Secondary Department of boys, while Miss Margaret Lackey, of Jamestown, took the place of Miss Maud Corbett, of Xenia, as head of the Secondary Department of girls. Both retiring superintendents are now in the service of their country. D. S. Lynn, of Fairfield, succeeded Rev. H. E. Crowell, of Osborn, as head of the adult class, while the latter takes the place of Supt. Chester Devoe, of Jamestown, in the teacher training department. Mrs. W. O. Custer was re-elected superintendent of temperance and Rev. Jerome Schulz of Fairfield, was reelected superintendent of visitation. Mrs. P. Hastings of Cedarville succeeds Miss Bernice Funderburg of Yellow Springs as superintendent of missionary. On the executive committee, Rev. H. C. Biddlecum was elected to take the place of Rev. H. C. Clerk of Yellow Springs who has moved. The committee itself will fill the place made vacant by the withdrawal of Dr. H. O. Whittaker of New Burlington who is now in the service.

SAFETY TO FRANCE CAN COME ONLY BY COMPLETE VICTORY

Paris, April 24.—Expecting Germany soon to launch another peace offensive, French leaders are warning against it.

"At this serious hour the safety of France can only come through victory," declared M. Maginot, former minister of colonies, speaking before the department of the Meuse.

"Each citizen and each soldier, who wishes to live, must determine to conquer. All illusions of a peace not preceded by victory should be blasted. Such a peace would be worse than disastrous."

Antoine Dubost, president of the senate, said before the department of the Yser:

"We have reached the culminating point in the war, where the fate of France hangs in the balance. Germany is at the maximum strength. It is plain she pretends to determine the terrible fate of those she believes she is able to conquer."

"President Wilson has torn away the last mystical veils of Germany's sordid aims and at the same time has pied the strength of his powerful and immense country."

BRITISH POSITIONS
ARE MUCH IMPROVED

London, April 24.—Local fighting and artillery duels again constituted the action on the west front yesterday, it was shown by the night official reports. Field Marshal Haig reported the improvement of British positions east of Robecq in a minor operation in which we took 110 enemy prisoners and a number of machine guns. Several prisoners and four machine guns were also taken in the neighborhood of Meteren. German artillery was active in the Villers Bretonneux sector.

The French communiqué described "great mutual fighting" near Hard-Santerre and west of Noyon but said there was no infantry action.

"Fighting activity was limited," the German war office said. "British infantry was especially active between Lens and Albert, the report said, but claimed no success was attained in the local operations.

HOLLAND MAKES CONCESSIONS TO STAVE OFF WAR

Washington, April 24.—Holland was here today to be making some concessions to Germany to stave off war. Germany has demanded the right to get badly needed gravel and other war material from the neutral nations.

Holland has steadfastly declined to make certain alterations in policy, but it is considered likely here that she is striving to do the difficult task of keeping on friendly terms.

DRIVE IS RESUMED
BY HUNS

Following an intense artillery bombardment practically the entire British front, from South of Ypres to south of the Somme, Hindenburg today apparently has resumed his west front offensive with a drive against Amiens.

Haig, in his official report today, said "that strong infantry attacks are reported progressing in the Albert sector and between the Somme and the Aire."

The Somme and the Aire are slightly less than ten miles apart, where the battle front crossed them. The Somme flows directly westward through Amiens, while the Aire, flowing northwestward, converges with the larger river less than two miles east of that city.

Between the two rivers, the Germans in their last drive progressed to within less than 9 miles of Amiens. A resumption of the drive against this important strategic point has been forecast by allied military officials.

At the same time Hindenburg is thrusting westward from Albert which is about 6 miles north of the Somme. A heavy attack in this same sector last night was broken up by rifle and machine gun fire, Haig reported.

On the Flanders front the British commander said there was a heavy hostile shelling between Givenchy and Rebecq, a front of more than 3 miles along the southwestern edge of the German salient. Enemy concentrations of infantry near Merville, in the center of the Flanders wedge, were broken up by British artillery.

LATEST RULINGS
ON SUBSTITUTES
FOR WHEAT FLOUR

On April 17, the United States Food administration at Washington issued the following explanation of the substitutes to be sold under the fifty-five wheat saving rule:

In order to make clear what commodities the Food Administration considers to be substitutes for consumers to purchase with flour in accordance with the "Fifty-Fifty" rule, the Distribution Division of the Food Administration advised us that if any commodity is by nature exclusively one of the commodities found in the official list of substitutes and not a mixture of any kind or description, it may be considered a substitute of wheat flour whether it be sold in bulk or in package form or under a private label or trade mark. If in its entirety it is NOT by nature one of the commodities in the list it may be used as a substitute within the meaning of our rules.

The list of substitutes to be sold with wheat flour pound for pound is as follows:

Cornmeal, corn flour, hominy corn grits, rice, oatmeal, rolled oats, potato flour, soya-bean flour, barley flour, cornstarch (edible), buckwheat flour, sweet potato flour, feterita flours and meal, rice flour.

Nothing should be added or taken away from this list without the express authority of the Food Administration in Washington.

The following on the other hand are not substitutes for consumers:

Puffed rice, corn flakes, health bread, cream of barley, fruited oats, rice polish, pancake flour, peanut flour, rye crisp.

Neither is flayed rye or any other cereal product or any mixed cereal product in the substitute list.

The Food administration makes no mention of private brand goods and the question as to whether any particular brand of goods constitutes a substitute rests solely upon the definition found in the first paragraph, which coincides with Opinion No. A-51 issued by the law department on this subject.

To illustrate: "Quaker Oats" is a legitimate substitute because it is rolled oats and this brand or any other brand of rolled oats would come within the classification. On the other hand, corn flakes is not a substitute because it is neither cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, hominy or corn grits and it is not found in the list.

Likewise pancake flour made from buckwheat or other cereals is not a substitute. It is a manufactured article made up in part or altogether of commodities other than those listed as permissible substitutes and it is not to be found in the list. It should be sold in accordance with the mixed flour ruling.

Deep-Sea Disease That Cannot Be Reached by Local Treatment.

When you hawk and spit until you almost strangle in an effort to get your breath, because your air-passages are all choked up with Catarrh, and your condition grows worse from day to day, you are about ready to realize that Catarrh is by no means a simple ailment.

Catarrh is caused by millions of tiny disease germs that infest the blood. When they attack the delicate membranes and air passages of the nose and throat you can never get rid of them by sprays and atomizers.

They must be thoroughly routed from the blood. That is why S. S. S. is used so successfully in treating Catarrh. This remedy is so thorough in cleansing the blood that it routs out every germ of Catarrh or other disease.

S. S. S. goes right down to the source of the disease, and if you will begin its use today, you will find yourself at last on the right treatment.

Go to your drug store and get a bottle today, and if you want any special advice regarding your case, you can obtain same without charge by writing to Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 81 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

If you have had the disease for any length of time, you have doubtless used enough treatment to convince you that you will not be able to find any lasting relief from the remedies that are so generally relied upon. Others who have been afflicted with Catarrh have used atomizers and sprays, ointments, salves, jellies and other local applications by the wholesale, without making the slightest progress toward a cure.

You are doomed to the same disappointment, if you rely upon the same misdirected methods of treating this disease, for Catarrh is too stubborn and deep-seated to be reached by medicated applications which are applied only to the surface.

Why not save yourself the expense of buying S. S. S. and get rid of the disease.

MISS HUFFMAN WED

man of Bowersville, whose marriage occurred in this city last Saturday: Wilmington friends of Prof. Harper Pendry, honor graduate of the College who a year or two ago won an Eastern scholarship from the institution and studied in Philadelphia for a year, are learning with pleasure of his marriage Saturday to Miss Ada Huff.

The Wilmington News has the following concerning Prof. Howard Pendry and Miss Ada Huff:

Wilmington friends of Prof. Harper Pendry, honor graduate of the College who a year or two ago won an Eastern scholarship from the institution and studied in Philadelphia for a year, are learning with pleasure of his marriage Saturday to Miss Ada Huff.

The wedding is the culmination of a romance extending over several years, as the young people are both natives of the Bowersville vicinity and have known each other since childhood.

Since his graduation from College, Prof. Pendry has been teaching in the Bainbridge schools and his bride, who has just recently completed her year's work of teaching in the northern part of the State, will make her new home there until the end of the school year, five weeks hence.

The young people, especially Mr. Pendry, are known by a good many people in Wilmington and the expressions of congratulation will be quite sincere.

'FEELING FINE
NOW,' SHE SAYS

Mrs. E. Waltz, 811 Bakewell street, Covington, Ky., says Tanlac has put her stomach back in shape after she had been bothered with stomach trouble for a long time.

"It used to be that everything I ate caused gas to form in my stomach and it made me feel miserable," Mrs. Waltz said. "My appetite was very poor, too.

"I felt tired out all the time and although I tried everything it just seemed that I couldn't get rid of the feeling. Nothing I tried helped my stomach, either.

"Finally I decided to try a bottle of Tanlac and I'm certainly glad I did. It has put my stomach back in good condition, and really, I'm feeling fine now.

"The only thing that bothers me now is a little rheumatism, but I'm taking Tanlac Rheumatism Treatment and, since Tanlac helped me so much, I feel confident that the rheumatism treatment will help me, also."

Get Tanlac if you are not feeling right and get it today! Delay in health matters is dangerous. You can get Tanlac at Sayre & Hemphill's, D. D. Jones' or H. C. Sohn's.

A special concession was made to Mau by its Manager Riddle, in the city's tax for showing here. The price set by the City Commission was $10 a day, but on recommendation of the Commissioners, Mr. Riddle was empowered to fix the daily fee for Mau's show at $6 a day. The old fee was $5. This cut in price was only made because Mau is a resident of this city, and the price set by the commission of $10 a day has been quoted to all other carnivals.

Opera House.

Lovers of music will gladly greet the announcement of the return to this city of Williams' Colored Singers, a singing troupe which has never been excelled in this city.

The singers will appear here at the opera house next Tuesday, April 30 for the benefit of the East End War Relief.

Many Xenians were delighted by the program given by this troupe at the opera house last May. The com pany is made up of a number of ex cellent voices and the program it gives is of a high order. Their com ing is announcement of the biggest musical treat of the season. A num ber of good soloists are among the company a fine tenor and a wonderful soprano, delighting the large audience last year.

A stirring and timely tale of the

Everyday Etiquette

"Is it polite for persons alone on a train to monopolize a whole seat?" in quired George.

"Commuters should certainly not occupy a whole seat for each person and allow others to stand," said his father.

To No Good.
Early natures have more pleasure in disobliging others than in serving themselves. Hazlitt.

Red-blooded men of courage are on the firing line—and there are many anemic, weak, discouraged men and women left at home.

At this time of the year most people suffer from a condition often called Spring Fever. They feel tired, worn out, before the day is half thru. They may have frequent headaches and sometimes "plump" or pale skin.

Bloodless people, thin, anemic people, those with pale cheeks and lips, who have a poor appetite and feel tired, worn or feverish condition in the springtime of the year, should try the refreshing tonic powers of a good alterative and blood purifier. Such a one is extracted from Blood root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Queen's root and Oregon Grape root, made up with chemically pure glycerine and without the use of alcohol. This can be obtained in ready-to-use tablet form in sixty cent vials, as druggists have sold it for fifty years as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is a standard remedy that can be obtained in tablet or liquid form.

A good purge should be taken once a week even by persons who have a movement daily, in order to eliminate matter which may remain and cause a condition of anti-intoxication, poison ing the whole system. To clean the system at least once a week is to practice health measures. There is nothing so good for this purpose as tiny pills made up of the May-apple, leaves of apple and juniper, and sold by almost all druggists in this country as Doctor Pierce's Lemon Pellets, sugar-coated, easy to take.

THE WOMAN WHO CHANGED

BY JANE PHELPS.

GEORGE IS PLEASED THAT MRS.

ROSS CALLED

CHAPTER LIX

"Mr. and Mrs. Ross called, last night, and a Mr. Huntington came with them," I remarked at the breakfast table.

"That so? Well, Gerald Ross is a charming woman. I should like you to be friends with her."

"She is a lot older than I."

"I know that! It is one of the reasons I should like you to be with her. I don't care so much for Bert, but Gerry is all right."

"What is her name? You called her Gerald. I thought that was a man's name."

Her name is "Geraldine." We always called her either "Gerald" or "Gerry" before she was married, and most of us still keep it up. That young Huntington I don't care so much about. I don't know what alls young men, nowadays; they don't seem to have an idea in their heads beyond having a good time. He's rather of an ass, but has money enough to do as he pleases."

I was disappointed to hear George criticize Claude Huntington before I could tell him of the invitation to dinner at the gay Little restaurant in the suburbs.

"He is going to give a dinner out at Crafts, soon. He asked me if I and I would go."

"Perhaps, if I have nothing else to do," George replied carelessly, and I said no more—pleased to have even attentive promise.

Warm Feelings Suppressed

I do not think that anyone dreamed I was not perfectly happy, at this time, or that George was dissatisfied with me. But I felt that I had failed to meet his expectations as he had outlined them to me. He had married me not because he loved me, but because he saw my possibilities. He had preferred to mould a country girl than to take a girl who would be more inclined to assert herself—her own individuality. This feeling of failure always made me very unhappy. I knew perfectly well when he said he hoped Mrs. Ross and I would be friends, that he said it not because he thought the friendship would be a pleasant one for me, but because he thought it would be improving.

I wonder if one who has not had the same experience will, or could, understand how such an attitude affected me. I continually felt belittled, inadequate.

Then, too, I loved my husband. When I married, I thought him a veritable prince among men; he was so handsome, so courteous; and he certainly seemed to love me. I was a very happy bride—until we ended our honeymoon and went to Morelands. From that time, it had been a sort of a struggle—a struggle to please him, a struggle to hang on to my happiness, and a struggle to convince myself that he still loved me

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed with Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful
Lustre at Once.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear very younger.

"Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
